Collect

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING 2 Samuel 11.26 – 12.13a

A reading from the second book of Samuel.

- <sup>26</sup> When the wife of Uriah heard that her husband was dead, she made lamentation for him.
- <sup>27</sup> When the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD,
- <sup>1</sup> The LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, 'There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor.
- <sup>2</sup> The rich man had very many flocks and herds;
- <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. He brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his meagre fare, and drink from his cup, and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him.
- <sup>4</sup> Now there came a traveller to the rich man, and he was loath to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb, and prepared that for the guest who had come to him.'
- <sup>5</sup> Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. He said to Nathan, 'As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die;
- <sup>6</sup> he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.'
- <sup>7</sup> Nathan said to David, 'You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you from the hand of Saul;
- <sup>8</sup> I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added as much more.
- <sup>9</sup> Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.
- <sup>10</sup> Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, for you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.
- <sup>11</sup> Thus says the LORD: I will raise up trouble against you from within your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbour, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this very sun.
- <sup>12</sup> For you did it secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.'
- <sup>13</sup> David said to Nathan, 'I have sinned against the LORD.' Nathan said to David, 'Now the LORD has put away your sin; you shall not die.'

SECOND READING Ephesians 4.1–16

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

- <sup>1</sup> I, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called,

2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,
3 making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling,
5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.
7 But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift.
8 Therefore it is said, 'When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave
9 gifts to his people.'
10 (When it says, 'He ascended,' what does it mean but that he had also descended into the 11 lower parts of the earth?
12 He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might 13 fill all things.)
14 The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some 15 pastors and teachers,
16 to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,
17 until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to 18 maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.
19 We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of 20 doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming.
21 But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into 22 Christ,
23 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is
24 equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up
25 in love.

GOSPEL John 6.24–35

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

24 When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were at the place where Jesus had 25 given the bread, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for 26 Jesus.
27 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you
28 come here?'
29 Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw 30 signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves.
31 Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which
32 the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.'
33 Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?'
34 Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.'
35 So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and 36 believe you? What work are you performing?
37 Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from 38 heaven to eat."
39 Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread
40 from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven.
41 For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.'
42 They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.'
43 Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and 44 whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'
