The Departed:

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified:

hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING 2 Kings 5.1-14

A reading from the first book of Kings.

- 1 Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy.
- 2 Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife.
- 3 She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.'
- 4 So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said.
- 5 And the king of Aram said, 'Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel.' He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments.
- 6 He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, 'When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy.'
- 7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.'
- 8 But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.'
- 9 So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house.
- 10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.'
- 11 But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy!
- 12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage.
- 13 But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?''
- 14 So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

SECOND READING Galatians 6.7–16

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians.

- 7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow.
8 If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit.
9 So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.
10 So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.
11 See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand!
12 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised – only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.
13 Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh.
14 May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.
15 For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything!
16 As for those who will follow this rule – peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

GOSPEL Luke 10.1–11, 16–20

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

- 1 The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.
2 He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.
3 Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves.
4 Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.
5 Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!"
6 And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.
7 Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.
8 Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you."
9 But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,
10 "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near."
11 Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.'
12 The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!'
13 He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.
14 See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you.
15 Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

NOTICES

BARBECUE: St Michael's annual barbecue will be held on SUNDAY 11 JULY at 12.30 pm on the grass triangle. Tickets (which include sausages, burgers, salads, bread, puddings, bbqs and charcoal) are £4 (free for under 5s) and are available from today. If you wish to bring your own items to cook please do. Profits to church funds. Please get your tickets TODAY from Iola Bilson, Norma Twitchin or Sylvia Moring.

10 JULY: We are invited to visit St Mary's, North Leigh, which is the church attended by John and Pat Brown. They have arranged for us to have a guided tour of the church which has many interesting features including a Saxon tower, time to look round and then tea in the church hall. We hope that people will drive up and offer lifts to those who need them. Car parking and a map are available. Please see Martin Matthews if you would like to go. We need to leave Watford at 1.30 pm.

GARDEN PARTY: Thank you to all who supported the Mothers' Union Garden Party in the Vicarage garden. £45.27 was raised and will go towards MU work.

READERS' LIST: A new Readers' list is in process of preparation. If anyone would like to read one of the readings at the 9.30 service please see Sylvia Moring. People are only asked to read about once every 3 months.

BRING-AND-SHARE LUNCH: Wednesday, 7 July 2010, at 12.30 pm. Please sign the list at the back of the church.
